

bike-week

15-23 june 02 in Cambridge
welcomes you!

dr. bike
try-out show
gentle rides
exhibition
free breakfast

for more information please call (01223) 690718 or visit www.camcycle.org.uk

©ea.st

bike-week

15-23 june 02 in Cambridge
welcomes you!

dr. bike
try-out show
gentle rides
exhibition
free breakfast

for more information please call (01223) 690718 or visit www.camcycle.org.uk

©ea.st

Bike-week 15-23 June 2002

Welcome to bike-week 2002, open to everyone, it is the perfect opportunity to get out on your bike or simply discover the benefits of cycling. Why not begin with a safety check at the Dr. Bike clinic, then cycle for a breakfast on Parker's Piece later in the week on your way to work! If you don't have a bike, a great place to have a go on some of the amazing variety of cycles is at the Cycle Try-out Show. Whatever you do — the festival welcomes you! All the events are free except the Film Show.

27 May-6 June Exhibition

Where: at the Central Library. On display will be entries to the Art Competition, bicycle curios and you can find out more about Cambridge Cycling Campaign.

Highlights of the exhibition can be viewed at the Environmental Resources room in the Guildhall during bike-week and the month of July.

Saturday 15 June Three Rides to the Children's Festivals, Jesus Green

When: 12 noon.

Where: Starting from: 1. The playground in Dudley Rd, Fen Ditton. 2. Outside the Golden Hind pub on Milton Rd, 3. On Cherry Hinton High St. on the corner of Chelwood Rd.

These rides will be lead by experienced cyclists ending up at the Children's Festival on Jesus Green. Children must be accompanied by an adult. For route details call Clare Rankin on 01223 457108.

Sunday 16 June Cycle Try-out Show

When: 10am-4pm Where: Parker's Piece

What: This is your chance to try a huge range of practical transport solutions on pedal-powered wheels.

There's the flashy chopper-style Flat Bikes, 4 seaters, bikes for carrying goods and many bikes for small children to play on. Stalls and refreshments nearby.

27 May-6 June Exhibition

Where: at the Central Library. On display will be entries to the Art Competition, bicycle curios and you can find out more about Cambridge Cycling Campaign.

Highlights of the exhibition can be viewed at the Environmental Resources room in the Guildhall during bike-week and the month of July.

Saturday 15 June Dr. Bike and Cycle Security Coding

When: 10am to 3pm

Where: Guildhall Street, Cambridge (near the Petty Cury corner of Market Square).

Does your bike creak? Do you feel like you're always going up-hill? A well maintained bike is a joy to ride! Let Dr. Bike administer a free 29-point safety check; you will receive a voucher for discounted repair at many local bike shops. Police are offering security coding of cycles.

Monday 17 June starting at 5pm ET the Extra-Terrestrial - Cycle Home

Where: Arts Picture House, St. Andrew's Street Cambridge. Box Office: (01223) 504444

Cycling into our affections: ET — Special Edition. Cycling escapism as ET flees the scientists.

Thursday 20 June Picnic Ride

When: Leave from Hobbs Pavilion, Parker's Piece 6pm, return 9pm

Where: Gentle ride to Grantchester meadows. Bring a picnic.

Wednesday 19 June Free Bike2Work Breakfast

Time: 8am-9am (while stocks last!)

Where: Hobbs Pavilion Restaurant, on Parker's Piece, Cambridge

Enjoy toast or a croissant and a coffee with your fellow 2 wheeled commuters on Parker's Piece.

Sunday 23 June Countryside Cycle Ride

Where: Starting from Hobbs Pavilion, Parker's Piece, 10am
Details: This all-day ride through the countryside will be taken at a leisurely pace. Bring a picnic lunch and water.

Thursday 20 June Picnic Ride

When: Leave from Hobbs Pavilion, Parker's Piece 6pm, return 9pm

Where: Gentle ride to Grantchester meadows. Bring a picnic.

Welcome to bike-week 2002, open to everyone, it is the perfect opportunity to get out on your bike or simply discover the benefits of cycling. Why not begin with a safety check at the Dr. Bike clinic, then cycle for a breakfast on Parker's Piece later in the week on your way to work! If you don't have a bike, a great place to have a go on some of the amazing variety of cycles is at the Cycle Try-out Show. Whatever you do — the festival welcomes you! All the events are free except the Film Show.

Saturday 15 June Three Rides to the Children's Festivals, Jesus Green

When: 12 noon.

Where: Starting from: 1. The playground in Dudley Rd, Fen Ditton. 2. Outside the Golden Hind pub on Milton Rd, 3. On Cherry Hinton High St. on the corner of Chelwood Rd.

These rides will be lead by experienced cyclists ending up at the Children's Festival on Jesus Green. Children must be accompanied by an adult. For route details call Clare Rankin on 01223 457108.

Sunday 16 June Cycle Try-out Show

When: 10am-4pm Where: Parker's Piece

What: This is your chance to try a huge range of practical transport solutions on pedal-powered wheels.

There's the flashy chopper-style Flat Bikes, 4 seaters, bikes for carrying goods and many bikes for small children to play on. Stalls and refreshments nearby.

Wednesday 19 June Free Bike2Work Breakfast

Time: 8am-9am (while stocks last!)

Where: Hobbs Pavilion Restaurant, on Parker's Piece, Cambridge

Enjoy toast or a croissant and a coffee with your fellow 2 wheeled commuters on Parker's Piece.

Sunday 23 June Countryside Cycle Ride

Where: Starting from Hobbs Pavilion, Parker's Piece, 10am
Details: This all-day ride through the countryside will be taken at a leisurely pace. Bring a picnic lunch and water.

For more information call: (01223) 690718 or visit: www.camcycle.org.uk

Organised by Cambridge Cycling Campaign, working in partnership with Cambridge City Council, Cambridgeshire County Council TravelWise, South Cambridgeshire District Council and Cambridgeshire Constabulary.

Part of BikeWeek see www.bikeweek.org.uk

For more information call: (01223) 690718 or visit: www.camcycle.org.uk

Organised by Cambridge Cycling Campaign, working in partnership with Cambridge City Council, Cambridgeshire County Council TravelWise, South Cambridgeshire District Council and Cambridgeshire Constabulary.

Part of BikeWeek see www.bikeweek.org.uk